special Feature

Did you know that the first ever Father's Day celebration was actually held in Washington State? In 1910, a woman named Sonora Smart Dodd initiated the first Dad's Day celebration at the local YMCA in Spokane. Sonora's dad was a civil war veteran who raised his six children on his own, and this made Sonora feel that fathers all over the world deserve a special day of praise and appreciation.

Three years after the said celebration, a bill to recognize Father's Day as a national holiday was introduced in Congress. President Woodrow Wilson even went to Spokane to speak during the Father's Day Celebration. And just like that, the rest of the nation, and the world, jumped on the Father's Day bandwagon.

This month of June, we join, not just the Washington State community, but everyone else across the globe, in celebrating the lives of the very special men who brought us to this world and influenced us to become who we are today--our Fathers.

Happy Father's Day most especially to all Medstar Dads! You are all amazing! We celebrate your life--we celebrate you!

THE MEDSTAR DAD JOKE CORNER

What did the traffic light say to the car? "Turn your head while I'm changing!"

What do you call a Hispanic driver who lost his car? Carlos.

I heard the new auto body shop that opened comes highly wreck-a-mended.

What do you do when you see a spaceman? Park your car, man!

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY AND MAY ALL OUR DAD JOKES CONTINUE TO BRING JOY TO OUR FAMILIES.
